RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Our Religious Education Program is in need of a catechist/teacher on Monday afternoons from 4:30-5:45, for grade 3. Classes run from Sept. to March each week. Please find it in your heart to share your faith with our adorable little ones. You will be supported and trained by our director. Come and join our group as a catechist. Contact info: 973-838-0567 or reled@olmchurch.org

IF NOT YOU, THEN WHO?

We are in need of catechists for our Confirmation Program that starts this fall. The teens meet one Sunday per month between October and May. We will provide you with all the necessary information. All you need is a love of God, a willingness to share that love, a good sense of humor, and a gentle spirit and temperament to teach, guide and listen to our teens as they learn and grow in their faith and move forward toward full adulthood in our church. If the Holy Spirit is tugging at your heart to get involved, please pray and think about this opportunity. You will be surprised that as a catechist, you will discover that prayer, liturgy and your own relationship with God will become more vibrant and meaningful! Please contact Grace Davin at 973-283-1212 if you are interested.

"ALL to ALL"

In today's first reading, from Proverbs, we are all invited to "come eat, forsake foolishness, and advance in the way of understanding so that you may live". St. Paul tells us, in the second reading, to make the most of every opportunity continuing not in ignorance but in heartfelt thanksgiving. In the gospel, Jesus invites us to live forever. He repeats again His key message saying "I am the living bread from heaven; my flesh is true food, my blood true drink, given for the life of the world. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him and I will raise him on the last day". Why does Jesus repeatedly tell us that He is the way to life? Jesus' love for us is so encompassing that He desires us to possess Him. Jesus gives His entire self to us, all that He has, all that He is, in the intimate act of His true body and soul ever present in the Holy Eucharist where you enter into His divine life. There is no greater gift than His gift of "all to all". Do you accept life with Christ? Do you believe Christ's promise of His true presence in the life-giving Eucharist? Who can you offer this gift to? Invite someone to RCIA. For more information please call Msgr. Carroll at 973-838-6838 ext. 100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

LIVING

BREAD FROM HEAVEN

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Proverbs 9:1-6

A rich woman invites many guests to her home to eat and drink. She appeals to those who lack understanding to forsake foolishness and "advance in the way of understanding."

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:15-20

Paul advises the Ephesians to abandon foolish ways and evil deeds. All Christians should concentrate on doing God's will before all other things. He reminds them to always give thanks to God in the name of Jesus Christ.

Gospel: John 6:51-58

Jesus had just told the crowd that anyone who ate of the bread he planned to give would live forever, and that this bread was his flesh, which he would give up for the sake of the world. The people do not understand, but Jesus reassures them that his flesh is real food and that "those who feed on this bread shall live forever."

August, 2015

Dear Friends,

In St. Matthew's account of the wedding feast of the king's son, invitations were delivered but for one reason or another every guest declined. The king was not discouraged. He sent out his servants to find guests to attend. The only requirement was a proper wedding garment. Do you know someone who is not fully robed in the garments of the Catholic Church? Maybe you know someone who attends Mass even though they are not Catholic? Christ entrusted us with the mission of leading others to Him. Step out in faith and extend this invitation to someone whether you know them or not. Perhaps you will join us as a team member and share your gift of faith with others.

The Committee of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) invites baptized adult Catholics (active and inactive parishioners) who have not received all their Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation) to do so at the Easter Vigil on Saturday. Also an invitation is extended to baptized persons of other religious denominations and non-baptized persons who wish to learn about the Catholic Faith.

The RCIA meets almost every Thursday evening from 7:00 to 8:30pm in the parish house, beginning from early September until the spring. For more information please fill out the form below and either mail or email it to Msgr. Carroll at pastor@olmchurch.org or call the coordinator, Carol Mangani (973-283-2218).

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Msgr. John J. Carroll
Pastor
