Thank You!

Pastor's Gratitude: "I am very grateful to all who begged the Lord for good weather for our parish picnic last Sunday. It was better than good; it was perfect."

Parishioner's Response: "I loved everything about the picnic especially the food and the music."

PARISH MISSION

The Parish Mission is scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 1st, Monday, Nov. 2nd and Tuesday, Nov. 3rd. Fr. Ronan Murphy will present the theme of the extraordinary Holy Year, God's Infinite Mercy. The presentation on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings will begin at 7:00pm. In addition to the evening sessions, for those who don't like to venture out at night, Monday and Tuesday morning Mass will begin at 9:00am in the chapel and will incorporate the Mission theme.

RELIGIOUS + EDUCATION

CLASSES BEGIN Sept. 20 and 21. Note time changes: Sunday classes begin at 10:15 and end 11:30. Monday afternoon classes 4:30-5:45. Monday night remains the same time, 7:15-8:30. Please send your child with the signed last page of the parent/student handbook, their admission slip and a pencil. We are very excited to begin classes with our children. Questions – call or email Mary Ramsden at the Rel. Ed. office, 973.838.0567 or reled@olmchurch.org.

CATECHETICAL WEEKEND

At all Masses this weekend, those who participate in the ministry of bringing the faith to our children will be recognized and commissioned. Also, a certificate will be waiting for each of them in the back of the church. If you attend Mass in the chapel, your certificate will be in the narthex of the church. Let us all extend a word of encouragement to our catechists and keep them, and the Religious Ed. department, in our prayers.

As we bless and recognize our catechists this weekend, keep in mind that there is always a calling for more catechists. Your prayerful consideration of this ministry is greatly appreciated.

2015 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

Serving Christ Among Us

As you consider your pledge to the 2015 Bishop's Annual Appeal, it is important to know that the Partners in Faith campaign conducted in 2013 and the Bishop's Annual Appeal are different drives serving different needs. The Partners in Faith campaign raised funds for ministries outside the Diocese's general operating funds and included some endowments with an eye toward future needs. The Bishop's Annual Appeal, on the other hand, helps fund immediate day-to-day operations of four important ministries and programs: Catholic Charities, seminarian education, our diocesan priests' retirement residence and our inner-city schools. A parish would not suspend its Sunday collection after conducting a major parish capital campaign because it is needed to fund the day-to-day operations of the parish. Similarly, the diocese cannot suspend the Bishop's Annual Appeal since it helps fund the annual operations of important ministries and programs. With this in mind, please be as generous as possible to this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal. If you have received the Bishop's letter, please prayerfully respond today.

4-GET-ME-NOT-SUNDAY

4-Get-Me-Not Sunday is Sept. 27th. Carlos at the Catholic Charities Fr. English Food Pantry said that he is struggling to offer food to the hundreds of families coming each week. Food donations have fallen off remarkably this summer. He notes that people might forget about donating food, but those who are experiencing hunger cannot forget. OLM has a reputation of being an especially generous donor and so a heartfelt request goes out for food donations next Sunday. Thank you!

“THE GREATEST AND THE LEAST”

Jesus, in today’s gospel, speaks to the Apostles for the 2nd time about His suffering and death, but the Apostles are more concerned with who is the greatest among them. Jesus tells them “Whoever wishes to be first must be last and a servant of all”. Who can be close to God with a “Me First” attitude? Who can be close to God if their focus is “Self”? Jesus calls us to become instruments of mercy, selflessness, love and service to others. The greatest person among you is not the one who has the most but the one who needs the least. Are you willing to be the one who needs the least in order to be first? Want to know more? Join us at RCIA every Thursday at 7pm in the Parish House. For more information call Msgr. Carroll at 973-838-6838 ext. 100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

✠ YOUTH & YOUNG ADULTS ✠

The youth ministry program is looking for additional young adult volunteers (ages 18 to 25) to help support all the programs we do. If you are planning on staying local this year, consider helping out! The commitment can be as little or as much as you would like. If you're interested, or would like further information, please email youth ministrv.

BIRTH PARENTS MUST TAKE ACTION TO PRESERVE THEIR PRIVACY

For well over a century, the Catholic Church in New Jersey has provided adoption services. Throughout all those years, the Church promised to honor the privacy of birth parents and adoptees. That promise of privacy also was assured by law and affirmed by the State Superior Court. Those promises can no longer be kept. On May 27, 2014, a new law took effect that will allow adoptees and certain relatives to request and obtain the names of their biological parents beginning January 1, 2017. Any birth parents who wish to preserve their privacy must submit a Redaction Request Form to the New Jersey Department of Health no later than December 31, 2016. By filing this form, birth parents will be able to keep their names off any documents provided by the State to adoptees or anyone else. The State made the Redaction Request Form public on August 3, 2015. The form can be downloaded at <http://nj.gov/health/forms/reg-36c.pdf> If you know a person who placed a child in adoption, please tell them that if they do not file a Redaction Request Form, their name and other information could be given to the adoptee. Anyone needing assistance can call a HELPLINE AT 609-989-4809.

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

Wicked people discuss their anger at the just one, because they do not like being reproached for their evil ways. They want to see if he is the Son of God, so they decide to torture him and see if God will come to defend him. They decide to condemn him to a shameful death and see if the claims are true that God will take care of him.

Second Reading: James 3:16—4:3

James discusses the importance of avoiding jealousy and strife. People should strive for peace and justice instead of concentrating on material pleasures which can tempt people to sin to obtain whatever they desire.

Gospel: Mark 9:30-37

Jesus again attempts to prepare his disciples for his death and resurrection, although they do not yet fully understand. They had been arguing over who was the most important one, but Jesus tells them whoever wants to rank first must be willing to remain a servant to all. He also tells them that anyone who welcomes a child in his name welcomes both him and God.
