GIVING 100%

In this well known gospel, Jesus challenges you to recognize the possessions you love and care about more than God. What keeps you from giving 100% of yourself to the one who loves you unconditionally? What do you trust and cling to in place of our Lord? Nothing is concealed from His gaze, for even the thoughts of your hearts are exposed and each of us must render an account of our lives to the one who loves us. What excuse will you give when your time comes? Today, Jesus Christ gives you a personal invitation to give up whatever keeps you from following Him, in order to live fully in Christ. The rich young man was a good person following and keeping all the commandments, but Jesus tells him "you are still lacking; sell all you have and follow me". As good people we must heed Christ's call. Where are you lacking and what are you willing to let go of to live fully in Christ? Want to know more? Join us at RCIA every Thursday at 7pm in the Parish House. For info call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 or Carol Mangani, 973-283-2218.

Steadfast Love EVERLASTING LIFE

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11

This poem discusses how the spirit of wisdom is far more beautiful than any riches could be. All gold is no more than sand when compared to the importance of wisdom, which often leads people to the other good things in life.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:12-13

God's perception of people is called "sharper than any two-edged sword." God is able to know the thoughts and feelings of all his people. We can hide nothing from him, and will need to account for all he has seen in us.

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

A man asks Jesus how he can share in everlasting life. Jesus tells him to sell his possessions and travel with them. The man refuses and Jesus tells his disciples how difficult it is for a rich person to enter heaven if they are too concerned with their possessions. The disciples remind Jesus that they gave up everything for him, but he assures them they will be rewarded with everlasting life.

BIRTH PARENTS MUST TAKE ACTION TO PRESERVE THEIR PRIVACY

The Catholic Church in New Jersey has provided many years of adoption services. The Church promised to honor the privacy of birth parents and adoptees. That promise of privacy also was assured by law and affirmed by the State Superior Court. Those promises can no longer be kept. On May 27, 2014, a new law took effect that will allow adoptees and certain relatives to request and obtain the names of their biological parents beginning January 1, 2017. Any birth parents who wish to preserve their privacy must submit a Redaction Request Form to the New Jersey Department of Health no later than December 31, 2016. By filing this form, birth parents will be able to keep their names off any documents provided by the State to adoptees or anyone else. The State made the Redaction Request Form public on August 3, 2015. The form can be downloaded at <http://nj.gov/health/forms/reg-36c.pdf>. If you know a person who placed a child in adoption, please tell them that if they do not file a Redaction Request Form, their name and other information could be given to the adoptee. Anyone needing assistance can call a HELPLINE AT 609-989-4809.

PARISH RETREAT

NOVEMBER 1ST – 3RD

GOD'S MERCY

God's mercy is reflected in so many ways in creation, the Sacraments and in and between human beings. We only need to become more aware of God's mercy in the world around us and most especially in ourselves.

Pope Francis will open a Holy Year dedicated to the theme of God's Divine Mercy on Dec. 8th, 2015, which is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It will end one year later on the Solemnity of Jesus Christ the King. Pope Francis has and will continue to speak about the mercy of God, especially during the holy year. Holy years ordinarily occur every fifty years. The last one was in 2000, however, Pope Francis believes that God's mercy is so important for people to understand and appreciate that he has dedicated an entire year as a Holy Year of God's Mercy. Pope Francis invites all Catholics to take advantage of the graces available during a holy year and to seek his forgiveness of our sins especially if it has been a long time since we received it through the Sacrament of Divine Mercy, Reconciliation.
