PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7

Isaiah describes an individual who had been taught by God to reach out to others. He also describes this individual's willingness to be beaten and spit upon, secure that with God's help, he will not be disgraced.

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

Paul discusses how Jesus did not declare equality with God, but took on human form. He humbled himself enough to accept dying on the cross. God in turn exalted him and wants us to respect Jesus' name and worship him.

Gospel: Luke 22:14—23:56

Luke gives a detailed account of Jesus' last supper with the apostles, where Jesus tells them he will soon suffer in fulfillment of God's will. Then Jesus prayed that he might be spared if it suited God's will. After Judas betrayed Jesus, he was arrested. Although Pilate did not think Jesus was guilty of a crime, he gave in to the will of the people, and sentenced Jesus to death on a cross. Then Jesus was crucified and his body laid in a new tomb.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Father of all Mercy, we thank you for this season of grace and light. We know that sin has blinded us. Draw us ever closer to you in prayer and penance. Since you, O God, are light itself, give all your people a clearer understanding of what is sin, and what is virtue. Grant in particular that we may see, as never before, the profound dignity of every human life, including the vulnerable unborn children. Give us grace to defend our brothers and sisters in the womb by our prayers, our words and our self-sacrificing actions. We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.

March 2016

Dear Friends in Christ,

Year after year, the world sees the violence in the Middle East and how Christians are being forced to flee this area that is so sacred to our faith. It is a tragedy happening right before our eyes. Because of this, the annual collection for the Holy Land takes on even greater significance, and so I ask for your support when it is taken on Good Friday.

This special collection helps make it possible for Christians to remain in the Holy Land, including the poor and young couples, by building affordable apartments and supporting schools. It offers medical and social assistance, family counselling, youth centers and employment opportunities to many seeing work. It gives them hope at a time when all seems hopeless.

The collection also funds the work of the Franciscans who have been entrusted for the last 800 years with the care of the Holy Land sites. This is a great blessing to Christians who live there and for the countless pilgrims who visit each year. Last year alone, capital repairs and improvements were made to sacred sites in Jerusalem, Nazareth and Mount Tabor thanks to our participation in the Holy Land collection.

This is an important way for us Catholics to support the place where our faith was born. I ask you to be as generous as possible when the Collection for the Holy Land is taken up this Good Friday.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

+ Arthur J. Serratelli
