Those four Masses may be more crowded than usual since many guests will be attending these 1st Eucharist celebrations. We would also like to extend our sincere gratitude to those who prayed for these children over this past school year. If you remember back in October we asked you to pray for a child and, as a reminder, distributed the names of the children on a take home loaf of bread postcard. ## “THE OFFER”

Today we celebrate the 4th Sunday of Easter, sometimes called “Shepherd Sunday”. Today’s readings make us an “offer” we should not refuse, though many do. The questions to ask yourself are: “Do I really want this kind of love, security and joy that Jesus offers? And, Do I want or need a shepherd? Jesus Christ, who calls Himself the “Good Shepherd” laid down his life for you. He tells you that His flock hears and knows His voice and they follow Him. Are you like the people in our first reading who heard the “offer” but refused it? Every human heart needs and longs to hear comforting, life giving words like the ones spoken by St. John in our 2nd reading: “The Lamb will lead and shepherd you to springs of life-giving water and God will wipe away your every tear.” Then in the gospel the “greatest” offer is made to you by Jesus, who says “to you who hear my voice and follow me, I will give eternal life, you shall never perish and no one can take you from me for the Father and I are one.” Wow! The original, the one and only “God Father” is making you an offer you can’t refuse! What voice have you been following? God allows U-turns when you need one. Want to know more? For more information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas addressed many people, and large crowds gathered to hear them. Some of the Jews became jealous, and argued with whatever Paul said. But Paul and Barnabas continued preaching their message of salvation and everlasting life, until they were eventually forced to leave the town.

Second Reading: Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

John saw a vision of many people surrounding a throne and the Lamb. One of the elders told him these were the people who had survived great periods of trial, but maintained strong faith in God. Now they would receive eternal protection and comfort from God as reward for their loyalty.

Gospel: John 10:27-30

Jesus states that his sheep know his voice and follow him, and will receive eternal life. Jesus also says that no one can snatch his followers away, because God is greater than anyone who might try, and Jesus is one with God.
