Gift us with compassion to better understand each other, wisdom and love to assist each other, and trust and patience to live peacefully together. Grant that, through the intercession of Your mother, Mary, and St. Joseph, our family too may become a holy family, accepting one another, working together in unity, and faithfully dedicated to each other and to You. Amen.

“DEAR DAD”

How great is God! Through your Baptism you become God's beloved child and you receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, which brings you into an intimate child/parent relationship. Jesus tells you in today's gospel that God is your Father and you should address him as such. Wow, what a gift! Now you can say "Hi Dad, I want to talk to you. I know you love me and because of this love, I ask for your daily help, your great mercy and forgiveness when I fail you. You have the power and the desire to will the best for me and I must do the same for others. Dad, protect me from harm, keep me safe, and bring me to everlasting peace. I know you want me to trust in you. In your goodness you strengthen me and reveal all that I need." Jesus then tells you to be persistent in your daily conversation with Him, "Your Father". To you who seek – you will find, to you who knock – the door will open, and to you who ask unceasingly – it will be given! So stay in touch! Do you know someone who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments of Initiation? For more information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

CATECHISTS NEEDED:

The confirmation program is in need of Catechists for the 2016/2017 school year. You do not need to have a teen in the program to be a catechist. POWER

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Genesis 18:20-32

Abraham pleads with the Lord, who planned to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah because of the evil and sin in those cities. Abraham asks him if he would spare the city if fifty, forty, thirty, twenty or even only ten innocent people were found there. God says that he would spare the cities even for the sake of only ten.

Second Reading: Colossians 2:12-14

Paul explains to the Colossians that through baptism, they are raised to life with Christ because they believed in the power of the God who raised him from the dead. Even though they once lived in sin, their sins have been pardoned through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 11:1-13

Jesus' disciples asked him how they should pray. He gave them some phrases similar to those now used in the Lord's Prayer. Jesus also reminds the disciples how even men with sins are able to give good things to their children, and explains how much more the heavenly Father wants to give to us.
