2016 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

It is important that when you give to any charitable organization, you are confident that the funds are used wisely. Be assured that your gift to the Bishop's annual Appeal supports four causes: our Catholic Charities agencies, seminarian education, our inner-city area elementary schools and our priests' retirement residence. In addition, 50% of all funds received over our parish's goal are returned to the parish directly for their own pastoral needs. Please know that Appeal funds are used for no other purpose and serve only those who live in Morris, Passaic and Sussex counties. Please make a pledge to the Bishop's Annual Appeal today. Envelopes for the Appeal are on a table in the Narthex or ask one of the Priests.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

LET'S CELEBRATE ALL SAINTS DAY – NOV. 1ST

The Catholic feasts of All Saints' Day Nov. 1 and All Souls' Day Nov. 2, offer an opportunity to recognize our Communion of the Saints. As Catholics, we emphasize that with Christ at the head of the body of the Church, the people who make up the Church, living or dead, cannot be separated. When we celebrate All Saints Day – we recognize the relationship with those who triumphantly have entered into heaven. When we celebrate All Souls Day – we remember our obligation to live holy lives so we too may enter into heaven. Check out this website <http://www.loyolapress.com/our-catholic-faith/saints/saints-stories-for-all-ages> You can put in your child's name, if it's a saint name, and you can find out about that saint.

HALLOWEEN PUMPKIN PRAYER

Halloween is upon us. As you carve your pumpkin you may want to share this prayer with your children:

{cut off top of pumpkin}

Lord, open my mind so I can learn new things about you.

{remove innards}

Remove the things in my life that don't please you.
Forgive the wrong things I do and help me to forgive others.

{cut open eyes}

Open my eyes to see the beauty you've made in the world around me.

{cut out nose}

I'm sorry for the times I've turned my nose at the good food you provide.

{cut out mouth}

Let everything I say please You.

{light the candle}

Lord, help me show your light to others
through the things I do. Amen

Let God's Light Shine Through You!

Glorified in Christ

"INVITATION"

Jesus wants to stay at your house tonight so that you, like Zacchaeus, can get to truly know Him. He has invited Himself many, many times but so many of us are too busy, too superior, too closed-hearted, too distracted, unavailable and unwilling to entertain the Lord. Zacchaeus, on the other hand, was curious enough to take time to find the true Jesus. His decision was life changing and brought about in him conversion, repentance and restitution for all his previous victims, whom he extorted. Are you personally involved with Jesus? Do you only meet once a week on Sunday for one hour? Are you in daily conversation with the Lord? Have you developed the art of listening, of recognizing the signs the Lord gives you, that He is present and near you each and every day? You may think you're too unimportant for the Lord to be concerned with. You may think you're unlovable, unworthy to deserve His attention. Your God is merciful, forgiving and more loving than you can comprehend. You cannot earn worthiness because it is yours by your very existence. All that God created is innately good. God never tires of calling you and coaxing you to repentance, so that you can live in the fullness of God's love. If you have not invited Jesus into your home, your family or your daily conversations then why not do it now? He is not looking for that perfect house, that neat and tidy life but He seeks the lost, the lonely, the hopeless, the needy and the sinner. He seeks you and me. Jesus will feel "right at home" if you just invite Him into your life and your heart! Join RCIA on Thursday evening, 7pm in the parish house. For more info call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 or Carol Mangani, 973-283-2218.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 11:22—12:2

In this reading, we are reminded of the love God feels toward every creature, or else he would not have created them. God shows mercy on our sins and hopes we will repent and have faith in him.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 1:11—2:2

Paul tells the Thessalonians that God will make them worthy of his call, so that they can be glorified in Christ. Paul also tells them he is unsure when Christ will come again, but urges them not to believe people who falsely state that Jesus has returned.

Gospel: Luke 19:1-10

Zacchaeus, the wealthy chief tax collector in Jericho, was very excited when Jesus came to town and asked to stay with him. People were angry that Jesus would go to a sinner's home, Zacchaeus then told Jesus he planned to give half of his belongings to the poor, and repay any person he had cheated. Jesus was delighted since his mission was "to search out and save what was lost."
