“HEAVEN BOUND”

In today's gospel, Jesus is teaching us that God's commandments must not only be heard, taught, and practiced, but they must direct your behavior in every aspect of your life. Jesus wants you to realize that God's law is the very foundation of all right relationships. He tells you that God's commandments need to transform the very depth of who you are. He asks you to no longer live for your own intentions, but to actively seek the intentions of the God who loves you. In order to love God, and to know God, you must seek God and his commandments. You must first also be willing to reconcile with anyone from whom you are estranged, before you can have an intimate relationship with the Lord. You are the carriers of God's message. You are the future of Jesus's mission here on earth. Every thought, decision, and action begins with the condition of your heart. When your heart is right with God, then goodness and mercy flows from you to those around you. If you are willing to follow the commandments of God's love, then you are stepping into His righteousness and you are HEAVEN BOUND! Join RCIA on Thursday evening, 7pm in the parish house. For more info call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 or Carol Mangani, 973-283-2218.

Wisdom revealed... through the Spirit.

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 15:15-20

This passage from Sirach gives strong, unequivocal emphasis to free will in every person. Before each of us is set, sin or virtue, life or death, and each of us are free to choose the one or the other.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Paul explains to the Corinthians that there are two different kinds of wisdom — the wisdom of God and the wisdom of the world. The wisdom of God is mysterious, but this wisdom has been revealed “to those who love him” through the Spirit.

Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus tells the people he has come to fulfill the law. He speaks strongly against murder and anger, against adultery and lust, and against false oaths and lies. He warns the people that unless their virtue exceeds that of the Pharisees, they “will not enter the kingdom of God.”

LAUDATO SI': Care for Our Common Home

Pope Francis: Given the complexity of the ecological crisis and its multiple causes, we need to realize that the solutions will not emerge from just one way of interpreting and transforming reality.

THEME: We are all connected. We are connected to the rest of the human family, to the created world, and to those who will come after us in future generations.

OLM PARISHIONER RESPONSE – Implement town-wide composting areas and gardens. Use less bottled water.

NEW DIRECTOR - KINNELON PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Library Board of Trustees is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms. Kimberly Fraone as the new Director of the Kinnelon Public Library. Kimberly comes to Kinnelon after a successful career at Kean University where she last served as Acting Library Director of the Nancy Thompson Library. She will begin at the Kinnelon library on February 13th. Ms. Fraone is an alumna of Rutgers University, having earned a B.A. in History as well as a Masters in Library Science. Her experience includes working at the Millburn Public Library as well as Kean University. A “meet and greet” will be scheduled in the near future for community members to meet the new Director.

QUELLEN SPIRITUAL CENTER

The Quellen Spiritual Direction Formation Program is accepting applications from those who may be called to the ministry of becoming Spiritual Directors. Our 3-year program is designed for mature adults seeking to deepen their own spiritual life, learning how to sharpen their skills in offering direction, and becoming a trained spiritual director. Classes are held each week from September to May excluding holidays at the Quellen Spiritual Center, Mendham. Applicants must be in spiritual direction themselves for at least one year. For more info visit our website at www.quellenspiritualcenter.org or call Sister Teresa at 973-543-6528 x 217.

CITIZENSHIP OUTREACH CAMPAIGN

The City of Paterson together with Passaic County Community College and the NJ Alliance for Immigrant Justice is hosting a Citizenship Outreach Campaign in February. They will provide free immigrant attorney services and volunteers to help fill out citizenship application forms. Contact information and more is available on the bulletin board in the narthex.
