“LISTENING”

How do you listen to the readings of the Holy Scripture at Mass? Do you let God's word settle deep down into your heart, then ponder its meaning in your life? In Today's first reading those listening to God's word were brought to tears by its power. Every time God's word is proclaimed you should be wakened, stirred and aware that God is speaking to you with love. The same spirit that is in Christ is now in you, the baptized. The Holy Spirit calls you into the "one body of Christ," the Church. How are you serving Christ's body? You are called to be an ambassador for His Kingdom by growing in holiness and knowledge. You are responsible for forming a holy conscience in yourself and your children. In this way, you can truly understand Christ when He tells you: "Today this Scripture passage (Isaiah 61:1-2) is fulfilled in your hearing." You have heard but have you acted on His call? Want to know more? RCIA meets Thursdays at 7pm at the parish house. For more information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

Ezra gathered the people and read to them from the book of the Law of God. He interpreted the law clearly, so that everyone understood what he had read. He then told them to go and rejoice in the Lord.

Second Reading: I Corinthians 12:12-30

Paul explains that a body is composed of many different parts, and that each part has its' own purpose and is important. He compares this to the Church, describing how we are one body composed of many members. All members should show concern for each other and understand that we are all vital to the body as a whole.

Gospel: Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21

Luke discusses his decision to write about the events he and the other disciples had witnessed. He begins by telling of Jesus reading a passage from the book of Isaiah, where the anointed one is portrayed. Jesus finished by telling the people that they had seen that passage fulfilled in their hearing.
