Memory of Melissa Marie Gillman.

ADDITIONAL MASS INTENTIONS DURING LENT

Since we have added additional Masses during Lent, we have room for more Mass intentions and we will be offering them at a reduced rate of $10. We would like to fill up the intentions for the 7pm weekday Masses and they are a lovely way to remember those who have died or for a special intention.

SUBSTANTIATION TAX STATEMENTS

Statements are in the mail to all parishioners who have made contributions to OLM of $250 or more.

STEWARDSHIP A WAY OF LIFE TITHING, GOD'S PLAN FOR GIVING

Last Week: $15,464.00

Last Year: $14,801.00

Attendance: 808

Pastor's Gratitude: "I am very grateful to the 300+ volunteers who provide valuable services to the entire parish."

Parishioner's response: "I am sorry to see the poinsettia plants go but it is time to move into a less festive but more solemn season."

PARKING

We need to be even more vigilant when there is snow or ice on the pavement. Please be careful and think of the other cars.

THANK YOU!

For many years, OLM parishioners have been special friends to the Catholic Charities Fr. English Food Pantry in Paterson, where about 5,000 poor are helped monthly. Each week, the chili makers provide 55 pans of chili, every 4th Sun. non-perishable food is donated. Dave Puccia and the KofC run special supermarket food drives. Special thanks to parishioners who made an inner city abandoned lot become a produce garden despite many, many obstacles. Nancy Hirdt as project coordinator, Andy San Filippo as mover and shaker to get soil and make beds and Barbara Perino as Master Gardener advisor were catalysts who enabled the harvest of 700 pounds of corn, squash, tomatoes, jalapenos and more for the clients at the food pantry. We are a special giving parish,

Sincerely, Ellen & Bill Sharkey

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

All students in winter and summer programs should attend, with parents, one of the many Ash Wednesday Masses or service.
See 3rd page of the bulletin for details. Winter students received Lenten booklets to encourage a meaningful Lenten season for the entire family. REMINDER: There are no classes on 2/14
and 2/15 - schools are closed.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Please join our Baptism Prep team. Monthly, a session is held for couples who are preparing for a baptism. Sessions are held in the home (or the rectory) of the facilitator. A team member is assigned 1 or 2 months per year which is approx. 1 hour where they play a video and supply refreshments. This year, our team is in need of facilitators for Feb., April and Dec. It's a special ministry where you to meet the newest members of the Catholic Church. Please call the rectory at 973-838-6838 x103.

EVA'S KITCHEN THANK YOU!

We would like to thank all those who cooked for Eva's Kitchen.
We brought 38 pans of food and fed 150 people. A special thanks to Tom Black and Cindy and Andy Boniface who helped serve on Sun, Jan. 24. Also, many thanks Jeff Frank for the bananas and Cindy and Andy Boniface for the chips and cookies.
Thank you, Kathy & Joe Gravino

"DO NOT BE AFRAID"

Does God love us in our sinful state? According to all three readings today, He not only loves us but calls us into ministry. Isaiah, Paul and Simon Peter find holiness invading their world when they least expect it. Each of them, though sinful, are called by God to experience divinity, to believe, to be healed and then to serve. Are you being called? Do you long to be loved unconditionally? Is there a part of you that always experiences loneliness? Are you unhappy and unfulfilled when you know you shouldn't be? Try on God; God is one size fits all. He fills you with overflowing joy and unending love. Like Peter, Christ is calling you to get into the boat. Jesus said to Simon Peter "Do not be afraid." What are YOU afraid of? Yes, Christ will ask you to change but He will also supply the grace needed to succeed. Are you willing to answer God's call? Want to know more? RCIA meets Thursdays at 7pm at the parish house. For more information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8

Isaiah recounts the awe he felt the first time he saw the Lord, who was surrounded by angels. He began to feel despair because he was a man of unclean lips, until an angel touched an ember to his lips and pronounced them clean. The Lord asked who he should send forth, to which Isaiah replied, "Here I am, send me!"

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Paul reminds the Corinthians that Christ died for us to free us from our sins. He encourages them to remember the importance of Jesus' death and resurrection. He admits that he initially failed to believe, and therefore was very grateful to be called an apostle and preach in the name of Christ.

Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

Luke tells of Jesus preaching to a crowd, then joining Peter who was about to end a fruitless day of fishing. He told Peter to lower his net back in, and a great number of fish were caught. Upon seeing this, Peter and his companions, James and John, immediately abandoned their nets to follow Jesus.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Lord of all Life, Your Love made us in Your image and likeness. Your Mercy made You into one of us. Your incredible, infinite justice allowed You to suffer our punishment, saving us from eternal death. Help us now to thank You by serving those whom You said are most like You, those who are poor and needy, hungry and abandoned, forgotten, most of all, the most helpless victims, babies scheduled for abortion. We pray to help their mothers find You and Your hope, Lord of Life. Amen
