“THE BOSS”

What greater gift is there than to have God dwell within your very being? In today's gospel, Jesus promises you this very gift: "Whoever loves me will keep my word and my Father will love them and we will make our dwelling with them." Jesus goes on to also promise that "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, will teach you everything." You were not meant to make your life journey alone. You have a co-pilot whose job is to direct and guide you in all of God's ways. Are you aware of His Presence? Every moment of your life you are presented with choices that set your course. Your focus should always be "God's Opinion" only, since His is the most important one. Choose wisely, God's will or your own will. Remember heaven has only one boss and it's not you. Be prudent and learn how to live for God, with God, surrendering all to God. This is the daily struggle that produces holiness. This is the purpose for your existence. Let the Holy Spirit who loves you enough to want to live in you be "The Boss" of your life and your spirit will be filled with God's peace. Want to know more? For more information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Some men informed the Gentiles that they must be circumcised if they wished to be saved, because of the Old Laws. Disciples then went forth to tell the Gentiles to honor only those rules which were strictly necessary, such as abstaining from eating meat sacrificed to idols and illicit sexual union.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

John depicts Jerusalem coming out of heaven, sparkling with the radiance of precious jewels. Angels were stationed at each of its twelve gates, and each gate bore the name of one tribe of Israel. The city had no temple, because God was its temple. The glory and light of God and the Lamb also replaced their need for the sun.

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Jesus tells his disciples, "Anyone who loves me will be true to my word." For those who do honor his word, both Jesus and God will love them and stay with them always. He also tells them that God will send the Holy Spirit in his place to give them the instructions they will need. Jesus then tells them that peace is his farewell gift to them.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Father of all Mercy, we thank you for this season of grace and light. We know that sin has blinded us. Draw us ever closer to you in prayer and penance. Since you, O God, are light itself, give all your people a clearer understanding of what is sin, and what is virtue. Grant in particular that we may see, as never before, the profound dignity of every human life, including the vulnerable unborn children. Give us grace to defend our brothers and sisters in the womb
