“FOR GOD’S EYES ONLY”

In our 1st reading today, we are instructed to practice humility as a way to the heart of God. Our 2nd reading reminds us that, accompanied by angels and saints, you stand before “God, the Judge of all” in the company of Jesus, the mediator of the new covenant who intercedes for you. In today’s Gospel, you are invited to dine at the table of salvation. We accept Jesus’ invitation by choosing a humble seat. Your place at the table must include the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind and all those who can do nothing to pay you back for your service. Jesus’ parable is a teaching on your spiritual readiness to enter the Kingdom of God. He is challenging you to inspect your every action. What is your motivation behind all that you do? It is the purity of your intention that Christ judges. Do you seek honor, recognition and praise or are you satisfied that you do all for “God’s eyes only”. Jesus requires you to forgo all reward until the eternal banquet where you will receive the “resurrection of the righteous”, which is far greater than any earthly reward. Do you know someone who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments of Initiation? Join us on Thursday evening, September 15th, at 7:00pm in the parish house for our first RCIA meeting. For more information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

WAS JESUS POLITICALLY INCORRECT?

✠ YOUTH & YOUNG ADULTS ✠

Confirmation Program Registration

Confirmation registration for 8th and 9th graders is overdue. If you have not registered please do so ASAP.

Service Hours Opportunity! The Knights of Columbus needs your help to run the kids’ activities during the Parish Picnic on 9/11 from noon to approx. 4pm. You can volunteer for 1,2, 3 or the full 4 hours. If interested, please contact our Youth Minister, Branden Kasper at youthministry@olmchurch.org. This is a fun way to earn 5 OLM ministry hours that are required as part of the full 20 confirmation service hours requirement!

Our Confirmation Program only needs one more catechist for our ninth-grade class. The program meets approx. once a month. You do not need to have a teen in the program to be a catechist. You just need a love for kids and a willingness to share your faith experience. We will provide all the materials and training. Please prayerfully consider taking on this very important role in our OLM teens’ faith journey. You will be surprised at what you learn while you teach! If not you, then who?

Humility

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

Those who are humble will find favor with God. Everyone should realize that there is much we can learn from each other. Even the most knowledgeable people need to be humble enough to know that they can still learn from others.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

The Hebrews are informed that they are not approaching an unapproachable mountain etched with gloom and fear. Rather, they have neared “the city of the living God, Jerusalem.” The Hebrews have approached a joyful gathering of angels, God our judge, and Jesus, who brought us a new covenant.

Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

Jesus went to share a meal with one of the leading Pharisees when he noticed other guests competing for places of honor at the table. He warned that a guest who takes the place of honor may be asked to move to the lowest place. Yet a guest who takes the lowest place is honored when a better position is offered by their host. He then added, “He who humbles himself will be exalted.”

PRO-LIFE CORNER

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, and in this year of Mercy, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of family life. O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life. Amen
