PRO-LIFE CORNER

Eternal Father, you are the Creator of life. You came to earth as both fully human and fully God to show your love for us. You even started your time on earth as a baby in the Blessed Mother's womb. For all these little babies who have been aborted, I pray that all these little souls will be given eternal life by Our Lord Jesus Christ, through His Divine Mercy. Furthermore, Lord, we ask that you protect our Nation and we pray for those who died on September 11th. We ask that you grant wisdom to America's citizens as we pray for peace and conversion of those hearts who do not yet know you. Please give us courage to keep fighting this evil. Please fill our hearts with hope, peace and joy because of Your promise that the faithful will spend Eternity with You. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen

“COMING HOME”

In today's gospel Jesus speaks of things lost, a sheep, a coin and a "lost son". Great joy rings out when each of the lost items are found. It is the same joy for our loving God who calls out to His lost children. You are the object of God's search. Like the lost son, you can be self-absorbed, self indulgent, filled with jealousies and so deeply entrenched in sin that you no longer recognize that you are lost and are in need of a Savior. Jesus often tells us throughout the New Testament that "He has come to save sinners, giving His life for the forgiveness of sin". Christ Jesus is the Savior you need. Today you are invited by Christ to embrace this truth. It does not matter where you have been but it is where you are going that is of great importance to the Lord. God's mercy and love is so encompassing, all that He has is yours. Go to Confession and receive God's mercy, love and forgiveness and then all of Heaven rejoices at your coming home! Do you know someone who would like to become Catholic or complete their Sacraments of Initiation? Join us on Thursday evening, September 15th, 7:00pm in the parish house for our first RCIA meeting. For more information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

A clean heart  create in me

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14

God became very angry with the Israelites for worshipping a molten calf and making sacrifices to it. The people had so quickly violated his commandments that he planned to destroy them. But Moses pleaded with God for mercy and God relented.

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 1:12-17

Paul considered himself a former blasphemer and persecutor, and expressed his gratitude for the mercy Jesus showed him. Paul felt that he was a perfect example of Jesus' patience toward sinners and his desire to reconcile them with God.

Gospel: Luke 15:1-32

The Pharisees grew angry because of the Jesus' compassion toward sinners. In response, Jesus tells of a son who squandered his inheritance, then returned to his father and asked to be treated as a hired hand. The father rejoiced, angering his older and more obedient son. The father explained that everything he owned belonged to his older son; but he had to rejoice for the son who was lost and had been found.
