DO IT FOR JESUS

Our results from the Do it for Jesus Program were encouraging. Almost 30% of the parishioners who gave to the Sunday offertory in the last year made a commitment for the next year. We also had 26 families newly identify themselves as active supporters of our church. Overall, the commitments reflect a 67% increase in the offertory over previous donations from those that responded with a commitment card. Please – it is important that parishioners maintain these commitments throughout the year, so that our church is able to continue its mission.

Pray for the Sick

We pray especially for our parishioners, relatives and friends.

At this time, over 80 of these children and young people have no catechist to teach them. You can help by becoming a Catechist for Religious Education. As you nurture the faith of our young, you will learn and grow as well! As one long-time catechist put it, "I learn so much from the children!" We provide you with training, materials, and support. ## “TORCHBEARERS”

Did you ever wonder why such a multitude of pilgrims, speaking many different languages and from so many different nations, were in Jerusalem at the time of the Jewish feast of Pentecost, also known as the “Feast of Weeks” or “Shavuot”? This was a Jewish Holy Day, which launched the reaping of the summer harvest and also celebrated the Covenant Law given to Moses at Mount Sinai, written on stone tablets and calling the Hebrew people to become a holy nation belonging to God. Devout Jews from every nation gathered in Jerusalem for this major feast. God chose that perfect moment in time to send forth the Holy Spirit into the world, changing it through the followers of His Son, Jesus Christ. The Lord writes His laws on the heart of all believers and the Father’s life-giving breath is breathed into the world, forming a new covenant. You are the body of Christ and become a new creation in Baptism. You increase your capacity for His love, when you receive the life-giving Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist, a gift left to you by Christ. Just like Olympic torchbearers who are charged with carrying the Olympic flame from the location of the last Olympic games to the next Olympics; God has given you the responsibility of carrying the flame of the Holy Spirit into the world from the very time of your own Baptism. You have the incredible task of witnessing for Christ, wherever you go, using your special spiritual gifts. God asks you to be vigilant in protecting and feeding your flame, allowing it to grow brighter and brighter, day by day, year after year. He asks you to make it a Holy run and to go the distance, crossing the finish line, on fire with the Holy Spirit, bearing the peace, love and faith of the living God. You are the Lord’s Olympians, you are God’s witnesses, you are God’s “Torchbearers”. Pentecost is the Church’s birthday, so raise high your torch and let your radiant light shine. Lord send out your spirit and renew the face of the earth! Want to know more about RCIA and receiving your Sacraments or about becoming a team member and a part of this rewarding ministry? For information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

On the feast of Pentecost, the disciples were gathered together when suddenly tongues of fire rested upon them, and they were filled with the Holy Spirit. They began to speak in many tongues; those who heard them were filled with amazement.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Paul tells the Corinthians that each possesses different gifts and performs different ministries, but each works for the common good in Christ Jesus.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

Jesus appears to the apostles after his resurrection and bestows upon them the power to forgive sins.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Lord God, I thank you today for the gift of my life, and for the lives of all my brothers and sisters. I know there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion, yet I rejoice that you have conquered death by the Resurrection of your Son. Oh Mary, Mother of Jesus and our Mother, together with St. Michael, the Archangel, and the Heavenly Hosts of Angels, protect the unborn and ask our Heavenly Father to forgive and convert those who advocate or practice abortion and instill in them a respect for all human life. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sacred Space

For my priest friends who helped...

It is a phrase battered around a lot these days
Sacred space
The world is very hungry
They miss You.
They don't know how to find You.
They think they have outgrown You.

Hungry souls.
I see them every week.
Traumatized,
They lie in a hospital bed
Sit up in a wheelchair wondering what just happened to them.

Where did God go?
Are they being punished?
Why do they have to hurt so much?
What are they going to do now?

And their families crowd around their bedsides wondering, too
Trying to encourage
To mouth the right words
Trying to understand what has just happened to them.

And You come.
Tiny wafer, round white host.
Tiny, powerful presence of hope.
You are hope.
You come in glory.
You come in silence.

You know the prayers and pain in each heart.
You have created them.
Sometimes they have strayed from you
You long to have them back.

You feed their hearts
As they receive you in their palms,
Opened, shaking
Or on their tongues,
Newly able to swallow
Sometimes the tubes in their throats
Keep you away
But not really
You still long to feed them
Your presence and peace is there in your blessing.

You are healing.
You are wholeness.
You are hope.
You are the sacred space.

*Bless your children Lord,
Bless them.
They hurt.*

Maryann P. Hobbie
