“FULL POTENTIAL”

Today we hear several parables from Jesus, which include the parable of the mustard seed. He speaks of the wheat and the weeds growing up together and also about the Kingdom of God being like the leavened yeast in the flour. Jesus, in today's gospel, goes to great lengths in His teachings. What exactly is the point of His narratives? Could it be that without the yeast, without the good seed and without good soil, all is lost? Is it that all is diminished and nothing reaches its “full potential” without God's nourishment? Our Lord Jesus Christ is telling you that He is the yeast and the sower of good seed. Even the tiniest seed of faith, when tended to, can bring about the Kingdom of God. How much tending do you give your faith garden? Are your conversations with your Lord long, deep, and sincere? How much do you listen in silence, allowing the Lord's Presence to engulf you? You need to make time to tend to your precious seeds of faith if you ever hope to grow in spiritual stature and power. Like the mustard seed you will become a dwelling place, and the Kingdom of Heaven will live in you. The Lord Jesus has sown good seed but you must nourish the fertile soil of your heart, mind, and spirit providing it with a holy and healthy diet. This September turn off the TV and join a Faith Sharing or Bible Group. Join our RCIA Team or commit to a Ministry. Faith leads to service and service leads to the Kingdom of Heaven. Enhance your knowledge of the Lord, experience the Joy of serving and then you will “REACH YOUR FULL POTENTIAL!” Want to become Catholic or complete your Sacraments? Want to know more? For information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

NOTE: This is the time of the year to sign up for RCIA! Please call Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 12:13, 16-19

This passage from the Book of Wisdom addresses itself to God, giving praise and thanksgiving for his mercy.

Second Reading: Romans 8:26-27

Paul indicates that since people are, in general, unaccustomed to the manner of praying, of speaking directly to God, the Holy Spirit will intercede for them.

Gospel: Matthew 13:24-43

According to Matthew, Jesus speaks of the “reign of God” in three parables: the man who soweth good seed, the mustard seed, and the yeast. In each parable, Jesus demonstrates that once the “reign of God” had been established, it grew and spread.
