“OCEAN OF FAITH”

Most of us have had our faith tested once or twice in our lives. Many of those times are due to circumstances beyond your control. When you arrive out of the darkness with your faith intact you can look back and recognize that God “was with you.” In today’s Gospel reading Peter steps out of the boat and out of his comfort zone to reach Jesus by walking on water. When Peter begins to sink he cries out “Lord save me!” Jesus answers Peter “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?” Is Jesus asking you to step out of your comfort zone? There is that old saying; nothing ventured, nothing gained. Peter ventured out and gained the knowledge that taking your eyes off the Lord could cause you to sink. Peter recognized that “truly, you Jesus are the Son of God.” Peter discovers his own weak faith, along with his real courage. You cannot remain in the boat and expect to grow in the ways of God. You will never know all that you are capable of achieving unless you step up and step out of your comfort zone. What are you waiting for? In today’s first reading, Elijah does not find God in the strong wind, nor in the powerful earthquake, nor in the consuming fire, but he finds the Lord in the tiny whispering sound that spoke to his heart. Jesus speaks to you in today’s Gospel when He commands you to “Come” after him and overcome your fear of “this and that” which may be keeping you in the boat. PUT ON YOUR WATER WINGS, KEEP YOUR EYES ON CHRIST, GRAB HIS HAND, STEP OUT OF THE BOAT AND TAKE THAT MIRACLE WALK ON THE OCEAN OF FAITH. Want to become Catholic or complete your Sacraments? Want to know more? For information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

CONFIRMATION

CONFIRMATION CATECHISTS STILL NEEDED

The Confirmation Program is in need of Catechists for the 2017/2018 school year. You do not need to have a teen in the program to be a catechist. You just need a love for kids and a willingness to share your faith experience. We will provide all the materials and training. Please prayerfully consider taking on this very important role in our OLM teens’ faith journey and contact Grace Davin at 973-214-0196. You will be surprised at what you learn at the same time you that are teaching! IF NOT YOU, THEN WHO?

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a

After fleeing from the revenge of the King of Israel, Elijah hid in a cave, but at the command of God, he went outside and stood on a mountain. There the Lord came to him, not in the wind nor in the earthquake, but in a “tiny whispering sound.”

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5

Paul is deeply pained because the Jews - in spite of everything that has been given to them - have rejected Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

Matthew vividly recounts the event of Jesus walking on the water. When the disciples see this, they are terrified, and Jesus chastises them for their fear. Peter begs Christ to let him walk on the water; he is at first brave but begins to sink and loses faith, crying out, “Lord save me!” Christ rescues him for his faltering faith.

August 13, 2017

Dear Friends,

In St. Matthew's account of the wedding feast of the king's son, invitations were delivered but for one reason or another every guest declined. The king was not discouraged. He sent out his servants to find guests to attend. The only requirement was a proper wedding garment. Do you know someone who is not fully robed in the garments of the Catholic Church? Maybe you know someone who attends Mass even though they are not Catholic? Christ entrusted us with the mission of leading others to Him. Step out in faith and extend this invitation to someone whether you know them or not. Perhaps you will join us as a team member and share your gift of faith with others.

The Committee of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) invites baptized adult Catholics (active and inactive parishioners) who have not received all their Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation) to do so at the Easter Vigil on Saturday, March 31, 2018. An invitation is also extended to baptized persons of other religious denominations and non-baptized persons who wish to learn about the Catholic Faith.

If you are curious and would like to try it, there is no commitment and no fee. The RCIA meets almost every Thursday evening from early September until the spring, 7:00pm to 8:30pm in the parish house. If you have questions please call or email Msgr. Carroll at 973-838-6838 x100 or call the coordinator, Carol Mangani (973-283-2218). For more information or to register, you may also fill out the form below and either mail or email it to Msgr. Carroll at pastor@olmchurch.org or fax it to the Rectory at 973-838-0710 or drop it in the Sunday collection basket. Registration documents are also on-line at olmchurch.org.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
