2017 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

The services provided by our Catholic Charities agencies are too long to list in our bulletin – but here are just a few: emergency housing for people in extreme poverty, out-patient and residential substance abuse treatment, group homes for disabled adults, outreach to veterans who are homeless, family counseling, etc. Your gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal helps bring this important work to life. In fact, Catholic Charities receives the largest percentage of Appeal funding. Your help is needed to continue providing this urgent care. Please be as generous as you are able to the 2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal. For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2017appeal.org. Thank you!

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR CORNERSTONE RETREAT

Would you sign up for an hour of prayer for the success of our retreat, our candidates and our team? A sign up sheet is in the narthex listing the hours of the retreat so that you may choose any hour you wish. We would like you to be part of our experience by praying for us while we are on the retreat and to ask for God's blessing as we reflect, renew and strengthen our faith. Please pray that the Holy Spirit will enter as we share our faith journey with each other on Oct. 20th and 21st.

WOMEN'S CORNERSTONE BLESSING

The Women's Cornerstone Team was blessed at the 9am Mass last Sunday. They have been working for a year and half preparing for this retreat so please pray for them.

CALLING ALL USHERS

If you are currently an usher please forward your name, address, phone, email, preferred communication (email/call/text), and the current Mass you attend. If you would like to become an usher please email Bob Morrisroe with the same info. Even if you cannot do every week, it helps to know that we have additional hands for Holy Days, Communion, Confirmation, etc. Thank you Bob Morrisroe (bobmorrisroe@optonline.net)

“SHOW AND TELL”

Today's readings should cause you to ask yourself this question, "What type of fruits am I producing in my life?" Jesus tells us the parable about a landowner (God) and His Vineyard (God's people). After sending many servants (priests & prophets) God sends His Son Jesus, whose words of truth, love, and His tender touch provide living water for the vineyard to produce Godly fruit. Jesus becomes the caretaker of the vineyard. This entire lesson from Jesus in today's gospel is all about your relationship with God and the fruits you bear. Your relationship to Christ's teachings should be visible in the structure of your life; every action causes a reaction, which is the fruit we bear and set in motion. St. Paul, in our 2nd reading advises you to choose only what is true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, gracious and excellent. He reminds you to "Give thanks and, without anxiety, petition the Lord in prayer; then the Peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." Have you made Christ the cornerstone of your family? Do all your decisions and responses reflect Christ? It takes perseverance and strong faith to move beyond the Ordinary into the Extraordinary. Can you remember "Show and Tell" as a child in school? WELL....THIS IS YOUR FIRST BIG ASSIGNMENT! Christ asks you to not only believe in the gospels, but to "Show and Tell" the gospel message. It is not enough to love and share His word but you need to show it by your life, in your home, your manner, your emotions, your relationships and in the way you love and forgive, that you are Christ-centered. Jesus was rejected by many of His own people but He was destined to become your cornerstone. ARE YOU TRIPPING OVER CHRIST, THE CORNERSTONE, OR ARE YOU BUILDING ON HIM? AT THE TIME OF THE HARVEST CHRIST WILL ASK YOU, "DID YOU SHOW AND TELL?" Want to know more about RCIA and receiving your Sacraments or about becoming a team member and a part of this rewarding ministry? For information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 5:1-7

This passage about the failure of the Lord's vineyard is a metaphor for the ingratitude of the people of Israel and Judah. In tones of sadness and rebuke, the Lord asks, "What more was there to do for my vineyard?"

Second Reading: Philippians 4:6-9

In a moving appeal to the Philippians, Paul exhorts them to embrace all that is pure, decent, and admirable; then God's peace will be theirs.

Gospel: Matthew 21:33-43

In another rebuke to the chief priests and the elders, Jesus recounts a parable in which the owner of a vineyard leases his vineyard to tenant farmers. When the owner sends his servants and even his son to claim his rightful share of the crops, the tenants kill all of them. With some bitterness, Jesus warns the chief priests that "the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to people that will yield a rich harvest."
