CARING MINISTRY

Our Thanksgiving Food Drive is underway! Many thanks to all our CCD and Confirmation classes and families for always being so generous with donations for our annual drive. We have sent home flyers and emails to all students/families. Our collection will run until Nov. 6th & there will be boxes in the school foyer on Sun., Nov. 5th and on Mon., Nov. 6th for donations of non-perishables. Donations will be sorted, organized and distributed in a few weeks. Each year, over a dozen holiday food baskets are made and hundreds of food items are collected and delivered to the Catholic Charities Father English Center in Paterson - just in time for Thanksgiving. They are all extremely thankful for your gifts. We are always in need of donations, Stop & Shop gift cards and cards to Walmart and Target. If you are interested in being put on our "Caring List" please email Melissa Giacoio at magiacoio@yahoo.com or 973-838-2393. We will reach out to you when needs arise and also keep you up to date on what we are doing with the Caring Ministry. A huge thank you to all of our "helpers" - your continued kindness and support makes this all so special. Best wishes for a blessed Thanksgiving!

We perform a variety of musical styles, from classical, to a cappella, to gospel, to contemporary. We are in particular need of men. As our young singers go off to college or members move away, we need to fill the empty chairs in order to maintain the caliber of singing our parish has come to expect. If you are a singer, your choir needs you. Did you sing in your high school or college choir?

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

SERVICE SUNDAY

With the help of our freshmen, students in grades 1-5 experienced a wonderful Service Sunday last week. December; Assembled bags of non-perishable foods for a pre-school in Paterson; bags will be sent home with children so they have something to eat over the weekend.

RELIGIOUS ED FOOD DRIVE

The Rel. Ed. annual food drive is happening. Each class has been assigned their designated food to bring in to replenish the pantry in Paterson. Please explain to your children what they are doing. Last year a child asked Mrs. Ramsden how she was going to eat all that food.

THANK YOU

THANK YOU to Mr. and Mrs. Lazarus' 5th Grade Rel. Ed. class for leading the 9am Mass Sunday as lectors and gift bearers. Congratulations on a job well done!

OLM CHOIRS- WE WANT YOU!

Junior Choir

We are looking for more Junior Choir members. Michael Pierce had the privilege of listening to many of our CCD children sing last week, and was especially heartened to hear many of the boys sing so beautifully. Cherub Choir

Our Cherub Choir is made up of parish children in grades 1, 2, and 3, who sing at our 4pm Mass on Christmas Eve. Rehearsals begin on Thurs., Nov. 2nd, from 4:30-5:15, and will continue each Thurs., until Christmas Eve (No Practice on Nov. 9th and 23rd) The children will learn traditional Christian carols as well as a few special songs. We have received about 10 membership forms back from our CCD children, however we need many more!

“JOB REQUIREMENTS”

Today, Jesus reveals to you the Job Requirements expected from all who claim to be “Christian”, when He tells you “You shall love the Lord your God, with all your heart, all your soul, all your strength and with all your mind. You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” Jesus sums up the Ten Commandments into just Two. If you keep these Two Commandments you will have accomplished keeping ALL TEN. Jesus teaches that your 1st obligation is to love God with the totality of your entire being. Your 2nd responsibility is to know how you want and expect to be treated, then shower that conduct onto others. It is when you love God above all else that you become capable of loving others unconditionally. The Golden Rule “Do unto others what you would have them do to you” is the surest way into Heaven. Selfless acts that are done solely out of love for God are always Holy and Sacred Deeds. Exchange your self-centeredness for self-givingness. Look for opportunities to give without any expectation of reward. Become aware of your intentions behind all your actions. Do they contain selfish motives? Do your actions reflect a “What’s in it for me” attitude? If so, you must change it to a “What can I do to help you?” attitude. Do your life choices meet the Lord’s Job Requirements? St. Paul tells you to transmit the “Good News” by becoming living examples of your faith in Christ. HERE IS THE CHANCE TO FINE-TUNE YOUR SPIRITUAL JOURNEY AND TO GRAB THE GOLDEN RING OF SAINTHOOD BY “GIVING YOUR ALL” AND DESIRING NOTHING EXCEPT “HIM” IN RETURN. Want to know more about RCIA and receiving your Sacraments or about becoming a team member and a part of this rewarding ministry? For information call Msgr. Carroll, 973-838-6838 x100 or Carol Mangani at 973-283-2218.

LOVE
GOD

On these two commandments
depend the entire law

OTHERS

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Exodus 22:20-26

This passage from the book of Exodus enjoins all to adhere to specific religious and social laws. It urges all to act with justice and compassion towards others.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Paul praises the Thessalonians for receiving the word of God so eagerly and totally. Word of their faithfulness has spread throughout Macedonia and Greece; they have become a model for all Christians.

Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

Matthew recounts the incident in which a lawyer, seeking to entrap Jesus, asks, “Teacher, which commandment of the law is the greatest?” With simplicity and authority, Jesus responds that the first commandment is to love God with one’s entire being; the second is to love one’s neighbor as oneself.
