RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

HEY YOU! YES, YOU!

HEY YOU! YES, YOU! Don't look around, I'm talking to you! Could it be that if I still have your attention that maybe, just maybe you're being called to teach Religious Education to our children of the parish? Maybe this is your nudge from God to get involved in this very special ministry. We are so fortunate to have such wonderful students in our program. If you teach in the upcoming 2018-2019 school year, you will be blessed beyond what you can think of. You'll learn a lot too. And you'll be a part of a group of people (catechists) that are really awesome. So think about it, pray about it, and please consider teaching our students come September 2018. Classes meet Sundays, 10:15-11:30 for gr. 1-5 or 2 Sundays a month 6:30-8:30 for grades 6-8. Or Mondays 4:30-5:45 for gr. 1-5 or 2 Mondays a month, 7-8:30 for gr. 6-8. Email me for more information dre@olmchurch.org

BRIDGE RETREAT SUCCESSFUL

Our 8th Graders attended their Bridge Retreat on Saturday, 5/12. It was a great success. They now have a small glimpse of what lies ahead for them as they prepare to receive their Confirmation in two years. A big thank you to the Sophomores who helped lead the Retreat. We couldn't have done it without you.

REGISTRATION – 2018/19 SCHOOL YEARS

Registrations for the Sept. 2018-2019 school years were sent out. If you haven't received yours, contact the Rel. Ed. office. If you have a new student entering 1st Grade or any other grade, please contact the Rel. Ed. so you get the correct forms to complete for the new student.

“THE BIG QUESTION?”

Do you realize that your family was handpicked for you by God? Your existence and the very family you were born into was orchestrated by the Lord before you were born. There are no coincidences with God. The last few weeks the gospels have spoken to you of truth, love and remaining in Christ. Today's readings speak to you again about love and remaining connected to the Lord. We must begin by loving our families first, the good and the difficult, the young and the old, the proud and the humble, because they are the path by which God perfects His love in you. It is God's job to judge and your job to forgive, mend, and find a way to peace. Christ is the Way. It is through loving Christ that you will become aware of your own inner beauty. It is through the eyes of the Holy Spirit that you will see your true self, that you will correct your frailties and then finally accomplish the difficult task of forgiving and loving yourself. Your love of Christ must become the center of your journey before you can become capable of loving anyone else. In today's gospel Jesus prays for His Apostles and for all the future "Believers," – THAT MEANS YOU! He prays that His Father will "Consecrate" You in Truth." This means Jesus wants you to be "set apart, made Holy, having the courage to lay down your life for Him, who is Truth." Before His Ascension, Jesus gave you His very own mission. You are now His Disciples and His Church holds the Keys to His Kingdom. Today, He tells you to Believe, be Baptized and remain Faithful to His Church. Two thousand years ago Christ warned you, and reminds you today, that this world belongs to the "Evil One" and all the fools who follow him, desiring and devouring worldliness. Today, Christ claims You as His own, as a member of His Kingdom, a Lover of His truth and a Witness to His Holy Love. Christ loves each person equally, but not each one will equally love Him in return. It is you who sets the bar, it is you who determines your standing with the Lord, it is your love for Him that "Sets YOU Apart". THE BIG QUESTION HE WILL ASK YOU IS "HOW MUCH DID YOU LOVE ME?"

Would you like to become Catholic or complete your Sacraments? Please call Monsignor Carroll, 973-838-6838 or Carol Mangani, 973-283-2218, for more information.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26

The disciples decided that someone should take the place of Judas, who killed himself in remorse for betraying Jesus. They nominated two who had been among them from the time of Jesus' baptism to the crucifixion. Then they drew lots to decide who would join them as witnesses of the resurrection.

Second Reading: I John 4:11-16

John reminds us that God dwells in those who love one another. We have come to know God's love for us. Only by loving one another can we be sure that God will remain with us always.

Gospel: John 17:11b-19

Jesus prays for his disciples at the Last Supper. He knows that by knowing the word of God as they do, they no longer belong to the world. He asks that God consecrate them in truth and protect them from the enemies they have made because of their belief in Jesus.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

O Mary, bright dawn of the new world, Mother of the living, to you we entrust the cause of life. Look down O Mother, upon the vast numbers of babies not allowed to be born, of the poor whose lives are made difficult, of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy. Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time. Amen

Happy Mother's Day!
